(2) Promote wellness and prevent premature deaths from non-communicable diseases by substantially and continuously reducing tobacco use, the single most preventable cause of death and the leading preventable risk factor for NCDs.

(3) Prevent tobacco use initiation by youth and young adults and facilitate quitting by users of any age.

(4) De-normalize tobacco use.

(5) Provide all workers, members of the public, and population groups with effective and equal protection against exposure to the hazards of deadly tobacco smoke.

(6) Ensure that tobacco product consumers and the public are provided with information on of the true risks and health consequences, addictive nature, and mortal threat posed by tobacco consumption and exposure to tobacco smoke.

(7) Prevent tobacco industry practices, including misleading packaging and labelling and product design that undermine health information.

(8) Prevent exposure to tobacco advertising, promotion, and sponsorship, which has been shown to increase tobacco use, especially among youth and interfere with attempts to quit tobacco use and remain tobacco-free.

(9) Prevent access to tobacco products by youth and young adults since it has been shown that the vast majority of tobacco users begin their use during youth and early adulthood;

(10) Protect tobacco control policies from the commercial and other vested interests of the tobacco industry on account of the inherent and irreconcilable conflict of interest between the goals of public health policies for tobacco control and the interests of the tobacco industry.

(11) Provide the government with broad authority to regulate tobacco products, including their attractiveness, addictiveness, and toxicity.
